

The "Huntington" from $479,000.00 + homesite

A home designed for those wanting to include every visitor in the action. A truly open concept home that allows anyone in the main area of the first floor to be part of any action or interaction.

Designed at 3,306 square feet, this home is extremely family friendly and is well thought out to ensure no fighting amongst the additional family members. Both front bedrooms are exact in size and appointments with built in window bench and cubbies for storage. These two bedrooms share a common jack & jill bath.

The rear of the home features a separate guest bedroom with bath for the occasional visitor or added family member.

The master suite encompasses the rear of the home and is a quiet sanctum for the owner. Featuring a master bathroom anyone would fall in love with at first glance or to enjoy the large custom shower. The Huntington home has it all for the homeowner looking for privacy but still wanting the open feeling for gatherings.
